Sen. McManus welcomes conservation district members to the Senate

Lansing – State Sen. Michelle A. McManus, R-Lake Leelanau, welcomed representatives of Michigan’s conservation districts to the Senate floor Wednesday. “I always enjoy the opportunity to visit with members of the conservation districts,” McManus said. “Their work is vital to preserving Michigan’s natural beauty.”

McManus was the recipient of the Conservation Districts’ President’s Award in December for her dedication to conservation issues.

A downloadable photo of McManus with members of the conservation districts is available on the Senate Majority Photowire. Visiting her were Sherry Blaszak of Missaukee, Rick Lucas of Mecosta, Osceola, and Lake, Charmaine Lucas of Mecosta, and Kathy Fischer of Osceola and Lake counties.
